

NOW HIRING

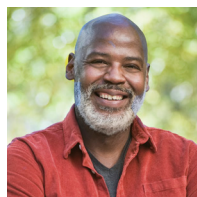

Be the One Who Shows Up

Short-Term Intervention, Long-Term Impact

Child Protective Investigators

Child Protective Investigators conduct investigations of alleged child abuse and neglect. They connect families with appropriate resources and make recommendations to help keep children safe.

Interested?

Click here
to answer a few questions and hear more about open roles.

Do you have public service experience?

Children and families facing crisis need dependable support from compassionate, skilled professionals like you who can remain steady in difficult moments, build trust and help protect families' safety and well-being.

Through the Continue the Mission initiative, the Florida Department of Children and Families, in partnership with the Florida Department of Veterans' Affairs and other state and local partners, connects experienced public servants with opportunities to bring those strengths to child welfare.

We're looking for experienced professionals in public safety and public service, such as former

- law enforcement officers
- first responders
- military servicemembers
- teachers
- health care practitioners
- emergency management professionals
- others who have held positions of public trust

This meaningful work provides competitive benefits including:

- Annual and Sick Leave benefits
- Nine paid holidays and one Personal Holiday each year
- State Group Insurance coverage including health, life, dental, and vision
- Retirement plan options with employer contributions
- Tuition waivers

Strong candidates are:

- Skilled at engaging people
- Committed to child and family advocacy
- Calm in high-pressure environments